

TorMog December Newsletter

The December Noggin was a busy one, twenty Mogsters all happily bantering away in the Crispin, many throwing fivers to treasurer Simon as subs for next year...those who haven't yet thrown a fiver to Simon, please do so soon. Paul, the very welcoming Landlord of the Crispin entered, and received the money Tormoggers had given in raffles earlier in the year. This money, nearly £50, Paul said would go to the Great Longstone Community Transport fund. We will resume raffles in the New Year, so come along armed with the will to buy tickets. Oh, and bring prizes...

Then, he gave us the bad news.....The Crispin is having a Works Outing coinciding with our January Noggin Date, so the kitchen will not be working, HOWEVER they will provide us with sandwiches, pork pies etc. to graze on, so please drop me an email saying you will, or will not be there on 3rd January, so we can give the pub a heads up of how many crusts to cut off.

But, back to the noggin: it is excellent food there, and just one course is enough to satisfy most Tormoggers a full tum. However, across the table from me was former chairman Colin, who was desperate for a pudding....and decided Ice Cream would just fit the bill. Well, I was once again coerced into having to join him, and the triple scoop variety, drenched in a fruity sauce accompanied by two tubular wafers was just the ticket. A photo will be on the Facebook Ice Cream Appreciation Society page by now. And the Tormog facebook page. Have a look!

I hope you have all made New Year's Resolutions. I hope one of them is to come along to Tormog Noggins. Another could be "I am going to (insert interesting venue here) on (insert date here) and would like to see other Tormoggers there, please join me."

I will let you know when I am going to The Peak Wildlife Park, Anson Engine Museum, National Memorial Arboretum, Foxfield railway, Apedale Country Park, Kelham Island Industrial Museum..... Please Tormoggers, do likewise.

So, Wishing you all a Very Happy New Year, with plenty of Mog sMiles. Hope to see you soon.

Oh, ...I know what you are all itching to ask.....How many Mogs were in the Crispin Car Park? Well: just the one. Mine.

But please: Let me know about the January Noggin: will you be there, or not? I need to give Paul a head's up as to numbers...it would not be fair if he over-catered for us.
